Section	Description
Project Overview	The project aims to analyze food ordering behaviour and consumer trends using Tableau. It focuses on identifying customer preferences, popular cuisines, meal types, customer ratings, city-wise ordering patterns, and restaurant performance through interactive visualizations, dashboards, and stories to support business decision-making.
Data Collection Plan	The dataset was downloaded from the SkillWallet Project Workspace after logging into the SkillWallet portal. The dataset was imported into Tableau Desktop for data preparation, visualization, dashboard development, and story creation.

Raw Data Sources Identified	The project uses a restaurant and food ordering dataset downloaded from the SkillWallet Project Workspace. The dataset contains customer orders, cuisines, meal types, customer ratings, restaurant types, city details, revenue, and delivery information used for business analysis.
